About the Women, Science, and Technology Learning Community

The Georgia Tech Women, Science, and Technology Learning Community is cosponsored by the Center for the Study of Women, Science, and Technology (WST Center) and Georgia Tech Housing. The goals of the Women, Science, and Technology Learning Community include enhancing the academic and professional development of its resident undergraduate students, who may be in any major, and enabling a research network connecting faculty and students. The Women, Science, and Technology Learning Community offers programs addressing educational and professional issues for students in all fields, including

- a) mentoring partnership with faculty members
- b) informal biweekly lunch discussions with faculty, staff, and administrators
- c) monthly dinners with guest speakers from the Georgia Tech community and beyond

The Women, Science, and Technology Learning Community welcomes all in the campus community to attend other WST Center events such as campus receptions, lectures and research panels. For more information about WST Center, please visit <http://www.wst.gatech.edu>.

Housing information and preferences

Have you ever lived in Georgia Tech campus housing before? If so, where:

Do you live on campus now? Roommate/suitemate preference:

The two housing options include 4th and Center Streets. The 4th St. (SE) residents share a bathroom with one roommate. Each Center St. (NW) apartment houses four students assigned single rooms who share two bathrooms, a kitchen, and a living room.

Residence Hall Preference (4th St. Apartments or Center St. Apartments):

In fall 2009 or spring 2010 are you planning to go abroad with study abroad? To go on coop and move off-campus? If so, indicate which term.

Each WST Learning Community resident joins one committee that plans events throughout the year.

Please indicate your preference for committees by rating them from 1 (most desirable) to 6 (least desirable):

Do you have suggestions for speakers/topics for WST Lrn C dinners? Can you recommend a faculty member or administrator to host a WST Lrn C lunch? What would you like to learn about?

Please read the following agreements and initial each one:

I understand my roommate preference will be considered but not necessarily approved..... Initials:

Choose/initial one mentoring option (A, B, or C). Continuing students will be assigned the same WST mentor unless requesting a different arrangement:

- A. I am choosing a female faculty member whom I already know. I agree to meet with this WST mentor three times each term if it is convenient for her. Please list the faculty member's name here Initials:

- B. I am requesting to be assigned a female faculty member in a closely related discipline as a WST mentor who will be paired by Dr. Colatrella..... Initials:

- C. I am not interested in choosing or being assigned a female faculty mentor at this time..... Initials:

Attendance: I agree to attend/participate in a minimum of three WST Center (lectures, panels, reception) and/or WST Learning Community events (dinners, lunches) each term..... Initials:

I understand if my participation does not meet the satisfaction of the WST and program administrators that I will be asked to leave the WST Learning Community. If I am asked to leave, this is binding and I will be given an assignment within Georgia Tech Housing that may or may not meet my preferences..... Initials:
